EXPERIENCE THE ARCTIC FROM A NEW PERSPECTIVE

WITH NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC-LINDBLAD EXPEDITIONS

SMALL SHIPS THAT TAKE YOU FARTHER

The powerful ships in the polar fleet bring you directly—and safely—into the heart of the Arctic’s icy wilds. Each small, nimble vessel was designed to deliver the finest in polar exploration, allowing National Geographic-Lindblad Expeditions to stay flexible, go farther and ultimately deliver the most ambitious itineraries available at the top of the globe.

TRAVEL WITH A WORLD-CLASS TEAM

Voyages are driven by passionate expedition teams—naturalists, photographers and cultural specialists who are all explorers at heart. National Geographic Experts are esteemed guests on board select departures, inspiring new perspectives on your surroundings.

National Geographic and Lindblad Expeditions are united in a shared mission to take curious travelers deeper into wild and storied places that paint a richer picture of the world.

TAKE GREAT PHOTOS WITH THE PROS

National Geographic Photography Experts have spent decades traveling the globe, capturing the world's most impactful images. They join every Arctic expedition—along with a National Geographic-Lindblad Expeditions certified photo instructor—to help travelers hone their camera skills in captivating places.

EXPLORE YOUR WAY EVERY DAY

Itineraries feature a range of immersive activities that bring you into the pages of National Geographic Magazine, from kayaking among icebergs to hiking the tundra. Each expedition offers excursions for every skill level so that you can explore your way—and at your own pace—every day.

REVEALING UNDERSEA WONDERS

On most departures, an undersea specialist brings your destination's marine wonders to the surface by capturing underwater footage of the Arctic's surprisingly vibrant marine life. During nightly recaps, the specialist interprets sea creatures and geological features, offering insights integral to the story of your destination.

All In

Activities and excursions are always included in the voyage price unless otherwise noted.

NEW & NOTEWORTHY

INNOVATIVE ARCTIC EXPEDITIONS

With the debut of five new itineraries and special solar eclipse departures and extensions, the upcoming travel seasons are brimming with incredible opportunities for Arctic exploration. Each compelling voyage was thoughtfully crafted to inspire awe and give you fresh perspectives on an endlessly captivating part of the planet.

Witness a Solar Eclipse at Sea

Your next chance to see a total solar eclipse is on August 12, 2026—and witnessing this rare event at sea is a unique thrill, whether you're an eclipse chaser or a first-timer. National Geographic-Lindblad Expeditions is positioning two voyages in the path of totality: Iceland's Wild West Coast to East Greenland and Arctic Odyssey: Iceland, Greenland and Canada, conditions permitting.

National Geographic-Lindblad Expeditions recently launched new extensions in the Arctic. See pages 34 and 35 for details.

ICELAND WITH THE FAMILY

THE ULTIMATE EXPEDITION EXPERIENCE

Iceland is the ideal destination for adventurous families—a land of geological extremes where Earth's drama unfolds around every corner. In the upcoming seasons, National Geographic-Lindblad Expeditions is offering more departures of popular Icelandic voyages so that you can explore this dynamic destination with your entire crew.

Visit expeditions.com/familytravel for more information.

NURTURING YOUNG EXPLORERS

On Fire and Ice: An 8-Day Sail Around Iceland, A Circumnavigation of Iceland and Exploring Iceland: Fjords, Waterfalls and Wildlife, kids and teens can participate in the National Geographic Expeditions Adventurers program, led by certified field educators who teach young travelers to explore like scientists and tell the stories of Iceland's dynamic landscapes through photographs, videos, drawings and more.

EXPLORATION FOR EVERY GENERATION

Each Icelandic voyage offers a range of activities, from leisurely photo walks along volcanic beaches to vigorous waterfall hikes and 4x4 rides through the remote highlands. However you choose to explore, you will discover fascinating places as a family and bond over the memories of your expedition for years to come.

DISCOVER ICELAND WITH EASE

The wilds of Iceland are easier to access than ever before, with a host of nonstop flights to and from cities across the United States. Fly from the eastern seaboard to Reykjavík in just over five hours and find yourself in an otherworldly realm of breathtaking waterfalls and gushing geysers. Exploring aboard the National Geographic-Lindblad Expeditions fleet, you'll enjoy the added ease of unpacking once and effortlessly traveling from one destination to the next, along wild coastlines brimming with natural wonders.

THE WILDLIFE AT THE TOP OF THE WORLD

Arctic wildlife is as diverse and fascinating as the region itself. As summer unfolds, the landscapes churn with life, drawing travelers here for the chance to witness these creatures in their natural realm. From the sea to the sky to the frozen tundra, prepare for encounters of the wildest kind.

This image was taken using a long-focus camera lens.

Clockwise from top left: Arctic terns migrate annually from pole to pole; spotting a polar bear with her cubs is among nature's most special moments; the white coat of the Arctic fox morphs into brown in the summer to blend with the landscape; a walrus swimming in Svalbard; reindeer are uniquely adapted to year-round life on the tundra; Iceland harbors more than half the world's puffins.

CHOOSING YOUR ARCTIC ADVENTURE

Stretching across the top of the globe and touching eight countries, the Arctic is rife with opportunity for every type of explorer. National Geographic-Lindblad Expeditions offers 19 itineraries in this remote part of the world, each providing a unique point of view on the region. Here are some highlights to help you decide which expedition is the best fit for your interests.

SVALBARD & NORWAY

Explore Svalbard's wild icy shores in the early season to spot walruses, reindeer and the icon of the Arctic—the polar bear. In the Norwegian fjords, kayak and cruise beneath soaring cliffs and tumbling cascades. These breathtaking regions are ideal for photographers.

Best for: epic wildlife, iconic scenery, photography

ICELAND & THE FAROE ISLANDS

Encounter the living Earth in Iceland as you Zodiac cruise around basalt islands, hike to a thundering waterfall or stroll cliffs aflutter with gannets and puffins. In the Faroe Islands, discover the threads connecting the Vikings to modern Arctic communities.

Best for: geology, birdlife, active exploration

GREENLAND

An emerging destination for adventure travel, Greenland's glittering icescapes and dynamic tundra converge in a dazzling Arctic tableau best explored by kayak and Zodiac or on foot. Go beyond the country's icy surface to experience cultural encounters in vibrant Inuit communities.

Best for: dramatic fjords, Arctic culture, backcountry exploration

CANADA

Canada is home to the legendary Northwest Passage, ideal for the explorer who seeks seldom-seen lands and their near mythic creatures—polar bears, walruses and belugas. Further south, engage with vibrant maritime communities.

Best for: big ice, rare wildlife, Inuit culture

In the medieval town of Bergen, learn about the rich history of this former Hanseatic trading center. Witness the thundering waterfalls and snowy peaks of the two longest fjords in Norway—Sognefjord and Hardangerfjord—and kayak, canoe and hike along breathtaking lakes.

Add it to Norway's Fjords and Arctic Svalbard or Svalbard: In Search of Iconic Arctic Wildlife.

St. John's

PRE-VOYAGE | 2 DAYS | FROM $1,050pp

Delve into the roots of festive St. John's at The Rooms museum, tracing the city's history back through its cod-fishing heyday to its Indigenous roots. Then travel the area's rocky coastline for a look at a picturesque lighthouse and historic Signal Hill.

Add it to The Canadian Maritimes and Newfoundland or Sailing the St. Lawrence Seaway and Canadian Maritimes.

Fogo Island Inn

POST-VOYAGE | 5 DAYS | FROM $8,990pp

A stay at the award-winning Fogo Island Inn is an invitation to experience the centuries-old culture of a Newfoundland outport isle, from its fishing and foraging traditions to its robust heritage of art, crafts and lilting music.

Add it to The Canadian Maritimes and Newfoundland.

Oslo

PRE- OR POST-VOYAGE | 3 DAYS | FROM $2,310pp

Explore the highlights and hidden gems of Oslo, Norway's cosmopolitan capital. Delve into the city's commitment to sustainability and the modern cultural movement of friluftsliv, the Nordic philosophy that drives the country's deep connection to nature.

Add it to Norwegian Discovery: Svalbard and the Northern Fjords; Norway's Fjords and Arctic Svalbard; or Svalbard in Spring: Arctic Wildlife, Light and Ice.

Eclipse

PRE- OR POST-VOYAGE | 5 OR 7 DAYS | FROM $4,890pp

On August 12th, 2026, Iceland's Snæfellsnes Peninsula will be bathed in the moon's shadow during one of the solar system's most astonishing phenomena—a total solar eclipse. Join an exclusive experience at a private hotel to witness one of the most spectacular sights on the planet.

Add it to Fire and Ice: An 8-Day Sail Around Iceland or Iceland's Wild West Coast to East Greenland.

National Geographic Endurance and National Geographic Resolution

138 guests in 76 outside cabins and suites

These next-generation expedition ships are truly in a class of their own—fully stabilized, highly strengthened and rated in a top-tier ice class category (Polar Code 5 Category A). They are able to navigate polar passages year-round and safely explore uncharted waters, and the wave-slicing technology of the patented X-bow® ensures the smoothest ride possible. Superb amenities—such as outdoor infinity hot tubs, saunas and twin glass igloos equipped for overnight stays—ensure luxuriant days at sea.

Clockwise from top: Two Seven Zero® restaurant; one of two igloos available for overnight stays; suite with balcony.

National Geographic Explorer

148 guests in 81 outside cabins and suites

Designed for in-depth exploration, she is the definitive expedition ship, capable of navigating both polar passages and temperate waters. Fully stabilized and with an ice-strengthened hull, she provides exceptional comfort, while her dynamic suite of exploration features—including an interactive chart room, a high observation lounge and a low-profile bow with dramatic views—reflect a dedication to curiosity and wonder.
